44th Annual Conference
November 13-16, 2019
Portland, Oregon

Thank you for your interest in supporting our Association's 44th Annual Conference! This packet contains many options for promoting your organization.

OUR ASSOCIATION

The Association for the Study of Higher Education (ASHE) is a scholarly society with nearly 2,000 members dedicated to higher education as a field of study. It is committed to diversity in its programs and membership and has enjoyed extraordinary success in involving graduate students in Association activities.

ASHE promotes collaboration among its members and others engaged in the study of higher education through research, conferences, and publications, including its highly regarded journal, The Review of Higher Education. ASHE values rigorous scholarly approaches to the study of higher education and practical applications of systemic inquiry.

OUR CONFERENCE

ASHE convenes annually as a community of scholars dedicated to the study of higher education. At least 1,500 individuals representing institutions and organizations from all over the world are anticipated to attend our 2019 conference. The annual conference has continued (and will continue) to grow in attendance, prominence, and success over the past many years:

- 2018 Conference in Tampa, Florida 1,550 attendees
- 2017 Conference in Houston, Texas 1,514 attendees
- 2016 Conference in Columbus, Ohio 1,506 attendees
- 2015 Conference in Denver, Colorado 1,517 attendees

ASHE encourages research from scholars in higher education, allied professional areas such as public policy, disciplines such as sociology, political science, economics, or psychology, and from our colleagues at state and federal agencies and associations with direct scholarly interests in higher education issues.

CONFERENCE THEME

At the 2019 ASHE Annual Meeting we will consider what it takes for individual scholars and the higher education research community to reimagine in ways that will be of use in solving problems in practice, policy, theory, and scholarship. In Portland we will engage our will to reimagine the study of higher education.

If you have questions about any of these opportunities, please contact ASHE Executive Director Dr. Jason P. Guilbeau at 702-895-2737 or jason.guilbeau@unlv.edu.

COUNCIL FOR THE ADVANCEMENT OF HIGHER EDUCATION (CAHEP)CAHEP Pre-Conference - Thursday, November 14*Anticipated attendance: 40

The mission of CAHEP is to enrich the teaching and learning experiences of graduate students and faculty in the Association's constituent Higher Education Programs within North America and around the world. Towards that end, the purpose of the Pre-Conference is to facilitate the exchange among program coordinators/directors, faculty, students, and other interested members of the Association

CAHEP Early Career Faculty Workshop - Wednesday, November 13Anticipated attendance: 35

Now in its 11th year, the CAHEP Early Career Faculty Workshop is offered to assistant professors, new associate professors in higher education programs, and advanced doctoral students at the dissertation stage who intend to become faculty. A diverse group scholars from around the country will share advice and expertise about how to craft and develop a research agenda, effectively teach and advise, earn tenure and promotion, and shape a successful and meaningful career.

CAHEP Mid-Career Faculty Workshop - Wednesday, November 13Anticipated attendance: 35

The CAHEP Mid-Career Faculty Workshop is intended for mid-career faculty including associate professors and those faculty members who are full professors, but with 15 years plus remaining prior to retirement. The goal is to provide workshop attendees with tools and resources to navigate the mid-career stage including advancement to full and/or administrative pursuits.

COUNCIL ON ETHNIC PARTICIPATION (CEP)CEP Pre-Conference - Wednesday, November 13 & Thursday, November 14*Anticipated attendance: 175

The CEP Pre-Conference Forum will highlight scholarship and offer opportunities to reimagine the study of race, racism, and intersectionality with other forms of oppression, in higher education.

CEP Mentor-Protégé Program - Wednesday, November 13 & Thursday, November 14Anticipated attendance: 75 protégés; 50 mentors

The CEP's Mentor-Protégé Program is intended to provide members of racially/ethnically minoritized populations with mutually beneficial mentoring relationships. To facilitate this process, protégés will be paired with mentors based upon primary scholarly and professional interests. Our objective is that this mentoring relationship will contribute to the protégé and mentor's personal and professional development.

COUNCIL ON INTERNATIONAL HIGHER EDUCATION (CIHE)CIHE Pre-Conference - Wednesday, November 13 & Thursday, November 14*Anticipated attendance: 50

CIHE will convene its 29th Annual Forum with the theme “The Will to Reimagine the Study of Higher Education around the Globe.” International higher education is a key force in shaping a democratic society and promoting global citizenry. The notion of international higher education has evolved over the years and has taken many forms, to the extent that the playing field for most universities is now the global landscape.

CIHE Career Success Workshop for International Students and ScholarsThursday, November 14*Anticipated attendance: 20

The CIHE Career Success Workshop for International Students and Scholars is intended for advanced doctoral students, recent graduates, post-docs, and early career faculty from international backgrounds. This workshop will provide nuanced advice and mentorship to international doctoral advisees who aspire for academic and alternative careers in the U.S. or abroad.

CIHE Mentor Program - Wednesday, November 13Anticipated attendance: 20

The main goal of the CIHE Mentor-Networking Program is to provide a structure that facilitates the creation of new connections and potential mentoring relationships between faculty, staff, researchers, and students who are interested in international/comparative higher education.

COUNCIL ON PUBLIC POLICY IN HIGHER EDUCATION (CPPHE)CPPHE Pre-Conference - Wednesday, November 13 & Thursday, November 14*Anticipated attendance: 80

The CPPHE Pre-Conference Forum examines the role of higher education research in informing decision-making in the public policy arena, while simultaneously exploring how key actors shape public policy. This year, we will focus on issues surrounding the translation of policy research to policy action, such as federal policymaking and its impact on state policy, alternative methods of communicating research, and engaging diverse voices on emerging higher education policy issues.

Graduate Student Policy Seminar - Thursday, November 14Anticipated attendance: 45

The Graduate Student Policy Seminar provides graduate students with opportunities to interact with researchers and policymakers who are knowledgeable about critical public policy issues related to higher education. The seminar also offers participants an opportunity to engage other advanced graduate students with similar interests and ambitions from universities across the nation.

REIMAGINING RESEARCH WORKSHOPS - Thursday, November 14Anticipated attendance: 25 per session (4 sessions)

These workshops are intended as a space for ASHE members to engage with and explore cutting-edge quantitative and qualitative research methodologies in ways that center critical methods and inquiry in research. A total of four workshops will be offered in back-to-back sessions on Thursday, November 14th. Each workshop will be led by leading scholars in the field and will challenge participants to expand their methodological imagination.

JOINT PRE-CONFERENCE RECEPTION - Wednesday, November 13Anticipated attendance: 400+

The Joint Pre-Conference Reception is a social event for the more than 400 ASHE members who attend any of the seven pre-conference events listed above. Attendees enjoy an open bar as well as light hors oeuvres.

NEWCOMERS LUNCHEON -Thursday, November 14Anticipated attendance: 300

All first-time attendees are invited to a complimentary lunch to kick-off their conference experience. Attendees are provided with tips on how to navigate the conference and encouraged to network amongst each other.

WELCOME RECEPTION - Thursday, November 14Anticipated attendance: 500

The Welcome Reception immediately follows the annual ASHE Presidential Address. Attendees are able to enjoy an open bar, passed hors d'oeuvres, and meet up with colleagues old and new.

AWARDS RECEPTION - Friday, November 15Anticipated attendance: 500

ASHE awards are intended to recognize exemplary achievements and contributions to the study of higher education through research, leadership, or service to ASHE and the field of higher education. A full list of ASHE Awards, including past recipients, can be found at <https://www.ashe.ws/asheawards>.

COFFEE BREAKS (5 BREAKS)Thursday, November 14; Friday, November 15; Saturday, November 16*Anticipated attendance: 500 each

Throughout the conference, coffee breaks are a time for attendees to re-charge. Coffee breaks are set-up in high traffic areas. In addition, "Conversations Over Coffee," coinciding with each coffee break, are hosted in the Grad Student Lounge.

KEYNOTE ADDRESS (2 ADDRESSES) - Friday, November 15 & Saturday, November 16

Anticipated attendance: 600

The most attended events of the Annual Conference have been the keynote addresses. Speakers for 2018 were Dr. Patricia Williams, the James L. Dohr Professor of Law at Columbia Law School, and Dr. Brittney Cooper, Associate Professor of Women’s and Gender Studies and Africana Studies at Rutgers University.

10TH ANNUAL ASHE DASH 5K RUN & 1K WALK - Saturday, November 16

Anticipated attendance: 80

Now in its 10th year, the ASHE Dash allows participants to enjoy a scenic walk, jog, or stroll around the host city. After this morning exercise, participants are treated to a light breakfast and informal networking with colleagues.

GRADUATE STUDENT LUNCHEON - Saturday, November 16

Anticipated attendance: 125

The Graduate Student Luncheon engages graduate students in productive and practical conversations about completing the dissertation, searching on the job market, and the variety of transitions that occur from graduate to postgraduate life.
